

PROCTOR CEMETERY

Last	First/Maiden	Information
PROCTOR	John	In memory of...died Oct 14, 1820 AE t 80 "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, yea saith the spirit for they rest from their labors and their wors(?) do follow them."

[In the 1950s it was reported that the cemetery stones in Proctor Cemetery were in excellent shape and visible in a field. There was no recording done of the stones at this time. In 1993 it was reported that the stones were completely shattered by vandalism. Today there the area is overgrown and there is no sign of the cemetery. The recording here is taken from a report done in 1984 by Katrina Espy.]
